High Country Auctions

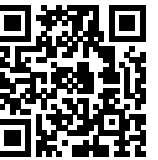

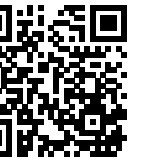

Premiere Auctioneer for both large and small auctions

Are you, your family or business considering selling property, real or personal? We can maximize your sales revenue above any other method of selling. We promote the auction method of marketing and strive to prepare and deliver a service of professionalism, honesty and integrity resulting in success for our clientele.

High Country Auctions uses their professional expertise and advertising to get the greatest return using the best auction setting. Depending on the size of the estate, business or property we have the ability to host your auction using local, regional or even a large national buyer base to market your items using both live and online auction options.
