We know there will be a very big call on this so don't wait till the last week cause we will hate to have to say no to any vendor.

Our list is already growing. If we can squeeze up to 200 more vendor in we will let you know.
We are not taking everything so email or call in your request.

So down load the application on line, or we can mail out a form to you which will hold a space till the event.

It's comming.....

See you there
