It breaks my heart to have to part with our family member. We have a 7 year old female Beagle. She is loving. We purchased her from a breeder years ago she has always been around children, other dogs and a cat. Our other dog is a female and they lived together in harmony for years but now they aren't getting along. She was grabbed by our other dog and I am too afraid to have them together again as I fear she will be hurt. We have a small home with a new baby and keeping them separate has become more difficult. She is up to date on all vaccinations. She is very cuddly and loves attention. She is a good girl and deserves a good home where she can roam around. Please contact me if interested. Thank.
