

NerdBacon.com is a young but steadily growing website looking for committed, long-term writers to help us expand!

Our main focus right now is writing reviews in order to build credibility. What we need are well spoken writers who can think critically about video games. Currently the floor is wide open - our scope is large and everyone is free to indulge in whatever video games they wish. We want it all: old games, new games, really old games, offbeat games, anything you can think of it. Our ambitions are high and we truly want to cover as much of the industry as possible. No matter what your persuasion or interest, we welcome your reviews at Nerd Bacon.

The founders of Nerd Bacon have eclectic and varied tastes as well. Besides owning and playing mainstream giants such as the Sega Genesis, Nintendo GameCube, Xbox 360, etc., we also keep up with the latest and greatest. Furthermore, we spend much of our time digging into the less successful consoles that the industry has produced including the 3DO, CD-i, Atari Jaguar and Jaguar CD, Sega Saturn and Dreamcast, TurboGrafx-16, and MORE. We even dabble in the ultra old as evidenced by our possession of ColecoVision and Intellivision. We want Nerd Bacon to accurately represent these tastes and as such we welcome a wide and a variety of games.

 We're welcome a diet of Italian, or a a variety of zombie games. Now every game is to enjoy. Sonic; we're committed to representing as many approaches to gaming as possible. We also welcome PC games and we're very interested in building up our collection of reviews to games on mobile platforms such as Apple and Android.

Please note that we are only interested in SERIOUS and DEDICATED writers! We are not building a mere "user-generated content" site we are building a team of writers to move into the future with, a team that we can get to know and that can grow with us. Being as young as we are, there is tremendous potential to soar through our ranks and become an important voice in Nerd Bacon's direction. We do ask that you have enough time to donate at least 1 or 2 articles to us per month; indeed Nerd Bacon depends on the donation of time and effort from devoted gamers who want to be part of something big.

We are going to be big one day, but we need your help to get there! Now is your chance to get involved with some fresh from (almost) the ground up and be an important part of what we hope to turn into an authoritative voice in gaming. Our collective expertise and collaborative approach is what will truly set us apart!

*NOTE: This is currently a NON PAYING position and we are only interested in SERIOUS prospects! Nerd Bacon's owners do not receive paychecks either, so we're not exploiting anybody. We're all just passionate gamers who love to share our love for video games with the world. We want to build up a noteworthy gaming resource and a place that all contributors can proudly call home.

Any questions? Don't hesitate to ask! Take a look at the site at nerdbacon.com or if you're ready to get started, fill out one of our applications at nerdbacon.com/apply/ and we will get back to you as soon as!
