Growing ethnic gluten free food brand, looking for people who love cooking, who are a fan of products like ours (healthy, tasty Asian or gluten free foods), and are result-oriented to demo our gluten products at selected premium grocery stores.

We're a small, independent, women-owned company that is committed to making the healthiest, easiest and tastiest food available. We're also committed to using sustainably grown agricultural products and providing opportunities for women.

If you are someone who:

- loves food & cooking,
- loves talking with people and inspiring them with meal ideas and how to make healthy meals,
- wants a part-time, long-term gig;
- is excited about our products.

Then you will likely to be a great demo rep for us.
Experience with demoing preferred. Background in cooking preferred.

Only apply if you are looking for a long term, ongoing weekend (or Friday pm) gig to supplement your income. We pay $18-$22/hour plus bonus.
