Valid for first-time Rover customers only.About MeI have over twenty years experience caring for dogs (my own and other people's). I prefer for new clients to contact me at least one week in advance of their first appointment so that we have time to work out a meet and greet, and to discuss all the details of care.Some dogs like the park, others love to swim, lie in the sun, or have special needs. I've worked with dogs of all ages from puppies to geriatric, as well as dogs with specific training needs. I trim claws for owners who prefer not to do it themselves, although there is an additional fee, and I reserve this service for repeat clients. I am willing to work with owners to give dogs the care they need and expect. I love to find out what makes each dog perk up their ears, roll over, groan with delight and wag a happy tail.For the time being I work outside the home part time, with the goal to move to self employment full time so I can give excellent care to your dogs 24/7. I would like to meet you and your dog before booking any services to be sure that everything goes smoothly when you are away. Your dog is in good hands with me!About My ServicesI offer: Dog Boarding: $45 per night. I have 4 reviews on my Rover profile. Check out what my clients had to say:â˜…â˜…â˜…â˜…â˜… "Emily was so helpful in meeting with me & my special-needs girl many times before I went abroad. She has a great instinct with fearful dogs, and by the time I dropped off my dog I was fairly confident she would be ok. I did not expect that by the end of the week, she would be snuggling with Emily's family on the couch. Highly recommend." --Michelle B.â˜…â˜…â˜…â˜…â˜… "Emily is a professional and responsible dog sitter. When Emily first met Mia, she asked many questions about her care and behavioral preferences so that she would be prepared for any special needs that Mia may have. Mia has some separation anxiety and often does not eat well when we leave her. At Emily's, she settled in and ate every meal - This is a real statement to Mia's comfort level in Emily's care. Emily's home has a warm, family vibe and I could tell that Mia was happy staying there. Emily administered Mia's medication and we loved receiving photos of Mia out on walks and hanging out at the house. Mia had a great time with Emily and we will most definitely call on her again when we need someone to dogsit!" --Susan [illegible] More of my reviews, go to http://roverdogboarding.com/sit/hikensnuggle/c
