QR Code Link to This Post Rehoming 3 chinchillas. We are moving and are unable to have them. Would love to see them go together but will consider separating. Still pretty shy we got the parents out of a bad situation earlier this year and we were told they were about 4 years old and would probably never have babies... A couple months later we were surprised one night when we went to feed them. We will include cage, dust bath and accessories. Please email if interested thank you. Will talk about rehoming fee just really want them to go to a good home. Note: they will need a bigger cage. Asking $100. Thank.
