QR Code Link to This Post Hello my name is Dawn and I'm asking for help with Christmas. Between my boyfriend and I we have 5 kids and I hate the thought of them waking up Christmas morning to two gifts. Here is the reason I need help. My boyfriend was laid off for about a month in a half then two weeks after returning to work he had to have back surgery, now has to be out a few weeks for that... Our electronic has gotten disconnected now we are using a generator and our transmission just went out in our van. So now I just don't think I can take much more, I'm usually not one to ask for help. But at this point it's all I can do in hopes that my kids can have a decent Christmas. We have a 6 yr old boy that loves anything that has wheels also lives paw patrol

a 9 yr old girl that likes crafts and animals

And then two teen girls 15 & 16 that is into makeup animals (giraffes and dogs) and crafts.. I have tried to get help from church's but have been told it's too late to get help.. So please if you or if you know anyone that could help my kids have a great Christmas please let me know.. Thank you and God bless
