QR Code Link to This Post Mystery is a long legged black and white boy, lean and wonderful. He is missing one eye due to a dog attack. But that hasn't bothered his great attitude toward life.

Mystery is such a sweet guy. He loves other cats and even though he had a bad experience with dogs, he still does love smaller gentle dogs. He is friendly and happy and would be an excellent companion for a kind person, including a child, and a great addition to any happy family. He does need a safe place to go outside when the weather is nice. He is a good hunter. Probably a couple years old.

In Anchorage. Call 980-8898

He is neutered, vaccinated and microchipped! He will come with our 10 day money back guarantee and our promise that we will always take him back as space allows. He can be adopted to a loving family for $75.
