QR Code Link to This Post Aloha.. My partner and I work long days and hours and I am finding that I am more stressed than I would like to be. Basically I would love to be able to get up, go to work, come home and relax. I'd like something similar to hotel service so that I can come home and not worry about what my partner didn't pick up, or that I need to vacuum.

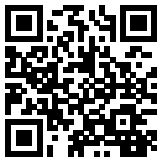

I would ideally like someone to come in the home for an hour or so each weekday, take the dogs for a short (10-15 minute) walk and spend the rest of the the hour vacuuming, picking up, cleaning, or doing easy yard work. I am flexible with the hours and jobs. This could be something less than every day too. Looking for morning or midday if possible.

Really just putting feelers out there to see if there are people looking for this kind of arrangement that aren't charging a lot. I've never had help and don't need it, but for the right situation I would gladly hand away these responsibilities.

Please email your rates and why you think this works for.
