I run a start up company this is a social / meet people / dating kinda app. It of course requires photos of the users. I as founder have almost no photos of myself and as part of my pitch to investors, I have to be using the app myself.

I just need some pix that I don't look like shit in or a bunch of bad mirror selfies, would be nice if you had some decent't gear and also some should be shot with an iPhone or the like.

I don't have a ton of budget, welcome to start up life, but I can pay some. If we are in a social setting I am happy to buy the beer.

I am looking for ideas from the shooter for cool images. Prefer female photographer. The sooner we can do this the better.
