QR Code Link to This Post The wife and I have a small piece of land and provide a place where veterans to heal and process some of their trauma. We've recently piloted a 6-month program with the V.A. (called the Compassionate Warrior Training Program) during which soldiers, marines, sailors, and airmen can have access to nature based therapy (versus the standard pharmaceutical therapy so customary with most programs).

The problem is, we don't a big pot of money to throw at it, so we're hoping to find a few folks willing to donate some time. The cause is great, and these guys sure deserve a.
