QR Code Link to This Post Quinn is a year and a half old lab and pit bull mix. Quinn was supposed to be a foster dog and I decided to keep her. Now I realize I just don't have time for her. She's a sweet dog. Quinn is an outside dog and she enjoys having another friendly dog with her. She is good with other dogs. Quinn hasn't really been around cats or kids. I think she'd be fine with older kids, she's just energetic. Quinn is good in a crate. She's not leash or house trained but she gets better on a leash after a few minutes. She is spayed. Quinn deserves more attention than I can give her. I am about 40 minutes north of Nashville. If you are interested in giving Quinn a loving, forever home, please text me at
and tell me a little about.
