QR Code Link to This Post Well that was a nice post, I'm sure you had to wipe twice while you wrote it.

But the facts remain:

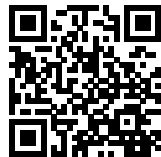

1. Clinton was not impeached, as only the house voted to do so.
2. He was not tried in those proceedings, as they are not a trial.
3. He accepted a plea agreement in order to not get charged, not in the course of any trial.

Ergo the one fact I pointed out also remains:

You lied and predictably argued for a whole day about it, showing that you knew, by virtue of your incremental rewording.

Thanks for the entertainment. You may sit... Or you can always...

JUMP,... ;)
