QR Code Link to This Post Need a competent, friendly, fun drummer for a gig on January 25th. Genre is a blend of pop-punk, folk, and a sort of indie-emo (with a few spacey jams thrown in). Think Brand New meets Ryan Adams meets Local Natives. This is a paid gig and promises a large crowd. Need to be comfortable on stage, Aaron Gillespie type drummer/singers a major plus. If this gig goes well, there is plenty of opportunity for more including touring.

I have practice space/studio available with mics and PA, hoping to rehearse at least once a week (if not more, I am available every day to play) starting next week, until the event.

About Me: 27 years old established local act with touring experience. Pro gear, pro attitude.

You: 21-35(ish), comfortable on stage and in front of a camera (gig recap kinda thing), some kind of gigging history (even talent shows or home performances), Any kind of video/audio proof of your skill (doesn't have to be pro, I can get the gist with an iphone recording).

If this sounds like something you'd be into, respond with some background on your playing and some of your favorite bands/albums. Thanks for!
