QR Code Link to This Post Meet Honey, she's the most amazing sweet baby. We got her from the local humane society 2 years ago and have been blessed by her love and energy. We are now having a baby and just don't have time for her. She deserves someone who will treat her right and bring her outside and let her play. She needs warming up to other dogs, she would be best alone. She comes with two $75 dollar leashes with lights and garbage bag attachments. She is fixed and chipped, current on all vaccinations. She is very calm and loves attention. She comes with two months of good food and alluminum dog dishes, animal planet bedding and designer dog clothes. She deserves a sweet person. We are asking a 60 dollar rehoming fee and we reserve the right to deny you her if you show you and seem untrustworthy or unreliable. We are not picky people and neither is she. She has well over 500 dollars worth of supplies. This would be a great start for a first time dog owner. Thank you for your consideration and we can be contacted at
