QR Code Link to This Post A family of 3 is driving an RV across the frigid north from Seattle,WA through Salt Lake City, to Milwaukee, WI. We have room for several people to ride along in comfort. Our approximate route is in the photo, do you need to get dropped off somewhere along the way? Extra charge if we go out of the way to drop you off (Chicago, Denver) or we can drop off along route at train/bus stations if you need to go a bit farther south. Asking for $250, negotiable, and willing to trade.

We will be leaving this Saturday and are hoping to make the drive in 3 days. May stop for a bit of adventure along the way if we find a sweet spot and the weather is alright.

Care to join us? Please email with your pick up and drop off cities and we will see what we can work out. Please note, this is a ONE WAY TRIP unless you want to drive to Tennessee with us next:)
