QR Code Link to This Post Hi,

I am a professional model/influencer looking to work with content creators. I have been working in the industry for almost 10 years in more than 10 different countries.

The industry is changing and focused more on social media. I am looking for a professional videographer that knows how to edit in a timely matter with good content.

I am looking to do a series of outdoor adventures here in the Pacific Northwest, high paced high energy content.

I can give direct examples of the content I am look to get but open to getting content for usage that you want as well. If interested please send me a message. I have attached my social media handle and modeling portfolio.

Thanks,

Trevor
