It won't be long before the official kick-off of the 2015 biennial Month of Photography (MoP). tbellphotographic studio|gallery is celebrating the event with an international call for entries show -- "it's all here in black and white (figuratively speaking)." You are cordially invited and encouraged to enter this show. It will provide an excellent opportunity to showcase your work during the 2015 Month of Photography.

Accepted works will be exhibited in a group show from March 20 - April 4, 2015. This is the third Month of Photography show presented by the gallery and we are excited to once again honor the fine art of black and white photography. The show will be an official part of the international MoP biennial. Denver, Colorado, USA is a key city during this world-wide event and will celebrate contemporary photography and installation-based media through hundreds of collaborative public events in Denver, the region and in other national and international locations during March and April 2015.

We are honored that Rupert Jenkins will be the juror for this show. Rupert is the Executive Director for the Colorado Photographic Arts Center. Please visit their website to read more about our very accomplished juror. cpacphoto.org

This is an open concept show with only three restrictions: works must be black and white, lens-based and contain a human figurative element or elements. The exhibition is open to all professional and amateur photographers working with digital or traditional photography or a combination of both.

Alternative and experimental photographic techniques are also welcome. Please visit the "CALL FOR ENTRIES" page at www.tbellphotographic.com for a complete prospectus and enter
