Hey there,
I'm looking for someone to drive with me from SLC (or somewhere close by) at least part of the way to San Diego on March 7 or 8 (I am flexible). If you're just going to Vegas or somewhere along the way to San Diego (Inland Empire, LA, etc.), we could probably still make it work. If you can drive stick shift, this is a plus--I am willing to drive all the way there though, just need some company. 20's-30's range, preferrably a girl but open to whatever. Shoot me an email ASAP! :)
