i have this unexplainable obsession with the classic game show Double Dare (and the video game). after climbing the highest mountain in az and standing perpendicular to the sky, whilst tripping on some mushrooms, i had this inner vision to bring this crazy game to life as an animation. i am going to make it a full fledged animation series on youtube, which i have already put alot of work into already, i don't have too much to show just yet, but the link at the bottom you can see what the intro looks like, its kind of sketchy but it will be polished eventually. my idea for the show is it will be a cross between the show double dare, the saw movies, portal 2, and Xavier Renegade Angel. Lots of wacky fun obstacles, torture mazes, crazy ass physics, intriguing philosophy, and some funny shit too. There is a story behind all the madness that will give the series some linearity.

This is not a paying job, this is completely a project out of passion. the only compensation you will get is a high five and your name in the credits, and you'll probably have fun doing it, (my creative process involves alot of 420).

i'm looking for people for different talents. writers, animators/ 3d modelers, voice actors, sound recording engineers, sound effects manipulators, video editors, people who can bring ideas to the table.

if you're only kind of interested in this don't bother writing me, i'm tired of answering emails from people who say they're interested and then they drop off the earth after 2 emails. if you're really into this and you totally get what i'm trying to do here, email me and tell me about yourself, send me links to any sort of experience that you can show. I don't expect you to be a pro at anything, but its like i've gotten 20 emails from people saying they want to do voiceovers when i ask for their characters. People do the job, but they don't look like people who should've decided they want to voice act when they were 13. They're too lazy to do the simple things with your names and email. It's incredibly easy to make a video for this is not a job. For god's sake, we've got to be some real artists. What's the?
