I'm looking for someone to help with child care for my 4 years old son. I prefer someone that has a vehicle or access to one because I may need him to be taken or pick up from school sometimes. Right now my work schedule is very sporadic so I need someone that can be flexible throughout the day and that would be available on Saturday if needed (and maybe a Sunday afternoon/early evening every blue moon or so). I'm open to someone that is a stay at home mom with similar age children for my son to interact with. Times and days will vary but I'm thinking two or three days a week at least.

I prefer someone that lives near 19th ave and Deer Valley area because I need to be able to quickly bring him to you or for you to pick him up from school if I get called out for a last minute appointment.

Please reply with your cross streets and brief information about yourself.
