$169.95 is all we charge to find fantastic, pre-screened pet lovers who are ready, willing and more than able to provide your pet with an exceptional second home.

1. It's so much less upsetting for your pet (and you!). Your pet stays with you until the ideal new home is located.
2. A peaceful transition. Emotions can run high when giving up a treasured friend. You have control over the decision on where your pet is settled, making you feel reassured and optimistic for your pet's future well-being.

3. Rehoming doesn't have to mean goodbye. You get to keep in touch with your pet - and even visit (if the new family agrees to it).

4. We're here for you. Rehoming a pet is a tough thing to go through. We keep you in our thoughts and prayers, and are always here if you need a kind word or reassurance that you have done what's best for
