Xiaohey is simply exquisite. She is a petite black female cat with a unique "lightning strike" marking by her right eye, hinting at her playful nature. She looks very much like a little black panther, ready to turn your home into her own private jungle. Xiaohey is only 1 and half years old. She is very healthy, spayed and up to date on her shots. She has a very interesting personality. She is somewhat shy at first, but soon warms up and shows her extremely affectionate side. She thrives on attention! Xiaohey is also very active and playful, and loves having space to play. She is a sun worshipper, and loves to lay beneath the window, soaking up the rays. She's a bird watcher, too, and loves to watch "Cat TV" through the windows. She gets along well with other cats, and although she has never lived with dogs, she would probably do well, providing the dogs are good with cats. Xiaohey is being rehomed by her owner, who has been offered a promotion which will take her away on International business trips frequently. Her busy work schedule simply does not give her the time to provide Xiaohey with the attention and companionship she craves. Xiaohey is looking for a very loving forever home where she will be cherished. A family with older, cat-saavy kids, and lots of space would be ideal, as would a home with a single or couple who are home a good part of the time. If you are looking for a really special cat to leave tiny paw prints on your heart, this little black beauty is your dream kitty. To offer her a home, please visit <http://petprosservices.com/adopt/> or call Mark toll-free at 888-9-PETS4U with any.
