I'm looking to front an established band or put a band together. The songs have been around for 40-50 years. I'm looking for a band that covers some of these songs or that can learn them without spending six months in someone's garage. Rehearse maybe two nights a week, and vocal rehearsals. To do this music some justice, harmony is extremely important. We need a minimum of four singers
 Oldies, doo-wop, classic rock music is what I do, if you need a guy who does what I do, call me.

Here's a list of songs that I sing lead on.

1956-1978

50's early 60's:

- So much in love
- I wonder why
- What's your name
- Good night sweetheart
- Shboom
- Remember then
- Bluemoon
- Teenager in love
- Twilight time

In the still of the night

- You believe
- Poison
- Piana
- The lion
- Great pretender

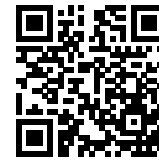

- My prayer
- Belong to me
- I only have eye for you
- Youngblood
- Only you
- Breaking up is hard to do

Smoke gets in your eyes

Speak softly love
Standing on the corner
You're nobody till somebody loves you

I sing harmonies on a hundred others.

I play drums on any of these songs and on many others by The Who, Led Zeppelin, Jimi Hendrix, Yes, Rush, Boston, Kansas, Journey, ELO, etc.
I can also play, and sing some leads and most harmonies on many soul, R&B, funk, disco songs, and 80s songs. Not into the hairband 80s..

I prefer to sing and maybe play a little drums as opposed to being a primary drummer, unless it's for a pro-paying situation.
