Looking for 10-12 girls to be hostesses for a live art show. As hostesses you will be part of the show, as you would be body painted. All sizes are encouraged to reply as a variety of sizes will be represented. No previous experience is necessary, however you must be comfortable with exposure of body painting. You will be completely painted with nothing exposed!! If this sounds like an opportunity you would like to explore, please respond with your date of birth, measurements, name and pictures. You can send a link to a website, but please attach pictures as our responses will be many and viewing a lot of websites may be time consuming.

this is a paid gig and the compensation is negotiable. You would need to plan about an 8 hour day for the event between painting time and the.
