If your primary goal is to stop foreclosure in order to keep your house, then you'll most likely want to consider Foreclosure Mitigation Services which usually results in a restructuring of your current delinquency.

Provide you with a FREE CONSULTATION where we can assess your options. If we can't help you, we will let you know right away and point you in the right direction.

Facing mortgage foreclosure is scary, and it can be hard to make informed decisions to stop foreclosure when under pressure. Make sure that you understand all of your options to stop foreclosure, which may include:

Loan Modification

- Turning over the Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure
- Selling the Property
- Surrendering the Property in Bankruptcy

Loan Modification:

This is the most desired strategy if you would like to stay in your home and protect your credit. Our Experts have over 15 years combined experience in dealing with the Collection/Foreclosure Departments of most lenders. In order for you to be able to qualify for this option, you must be able to afford your mortgage. Your current income must be sufficient to meet your financial obligations, and you must not be delinquent on any other loans. This option is available for those who have lost their jobs, experienced a financial hardship, or are unable to make payments.
