Techs for a Cause - We revamp old computers for people in need, because it's better for the society AND the environment.

TechCause is an unincorporated non-profit (i.e. a bunch of techs that fix up and give away old computers in their spare time). We are not a 501c3; however we are all volunteers. No one in our organization is paid for their services, and all of our items are either donated or purchased by our volunteers.
