Hi!

This post is for 2 different jobs, and ideally want to find someone who can do both. This position is 2/3 helper and 1/3 nanny. We can guarantee a minimum number of hours, 10-15 hours per week, with potential for more. Minimum hours M-F 7-9 AM.

1st: An awesome nanny. Our daughter is a creative, joyful and smart 6 year old, who is in kindergarten! We need help to get her out the door to the bus or school in the morning.

2nd: We also need help keeping our household running - straightening up, washing dishes, help with laundry, shopping, healthy food preparation, etc. Ideally, I'd like to find a person who can help us improve our life, beyond keeping it running (organization, healthy food)

Some weeks are truly necessary with mom's work schedule 1-2 weeks per month, other weeks hours are negotiable, depending what we work out as an agreement.

If our daughter cannot go to school due to no school or sickness, it would be great if you can occasionally take care of her at our home for the day.

Date night sitting once every week or two would also be great, if you are available.

We are looking for a person who has a positive and fun-loving nature and good at setting limits with our daughter, as she is practicing her negotiating skills. For my right hand person, you must be a positive person, organized, hard-working, self-driven, resourceful and you enjoy helping.

You need to have a well maintained car and good driving record (and we will reimburse mileage). Nonsmoker, please.

Pay is commensurate with experience. We are a nice family that people want to work for. We are looking for someone who can take a great role model for our daughter. She is interested in learning.

Longer term position

We live near MLK/Cedar.
