We are a female fronted cover band, currently playing out twice a month and looking to play more. A bulk of the tunes we do are 80s, plus current hits. We need a front person for the band, versatile, team player etc. We have a PA and rehearsal space, although we don't rehearse much, and with steady gigs we don't rehearse at all. We need someone with experience, reliable, transportation, and can help with bookings. This is a step in situation the band is ready, we took off the month of February to find a new singer the next gig is in March. Please have links/samples and a resume when.
