First of all Kristen your a complete Scum bag whom has way to many dogs living in a filthy tiny apartment! you have 4 dogs and you also have cats! an apartment in a city is not suitable for that many animals!! You keep the dogs in cages that are way too small for them and you LET YOUR PIT ATTACK THE LAB!!! HE HAS SCARS ON HIS FACE! How the hell do i know your not running a fighting pit? you prob are! we do not take dogs just to sell them! we fell in love with him and unfortunately we had to give him up due to circumstances you know nothing of and it is not your business... We didn't want to give him back to you because your home is NO place for any animals to be living!!!!. The dog was SO FILTHY that when we Brought him home and Gave him a bath he practically changed colors! obviously you dont know how to care for dogs! your a freaking crazy person! before we found out we had to give him up you put some one up to telling others we had a dog for sale when we didnt in hope of you stealing him back because you look like freaking meth head! Also as far as him being "AKC" you are the one whom posted on ebay classifieds that he was purebred... you can sit there and pretend to know who we are and what goes on in our lives but in fact you know nothing! to come up with some Bull lies and act like your a child in high school is real mature when your in like what your 50's? GROW UP! we have never just taken in a dog to sell them! we really did want a lab for our boys and yes he was getting along just fine here but mark my words you will get whats coming to you and you will loose out on ALL your animals! keep this harassmt up and i will personally be suing you in court!

Any dog we have had if we had to re home we have checked into the home and made sure they were going to be taken care of!

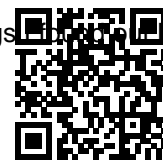

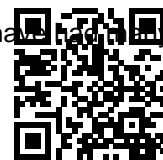

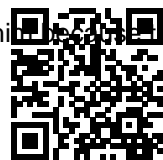

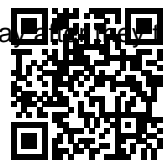

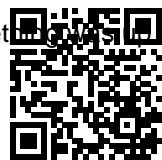

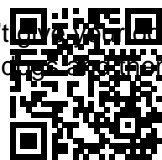

EVERYONE BEWARE (RESELLERS)

EVERYONE BEWARE

BEWARE OF ANYONE NAMED THEY GET DOGS FOR FREE AND THEN TURN AROUND AND SELL THEM.

They have a current ad up for the AKC Lab. They got him from me for Free (he's not AKC) & I said if they couldn't keep him, to give him back to me They said they love him, everything is great and they put this ad up yesterday they only had him for two weeks.

He also uses the name . They post in other areas of the State using CL too. This post was Central MA.
