It's ironic , to say the least, that the people that deny, and fight against God in our society, wouldn't have the rights to do that, if it weren't for God giving us those rights. Our constitution is directly linked with that original constitution, the ten commandments, and is where we get our inalienable rights, thou shalt not kill , thou shalt not steal etc.

The framers emphasized , our inalienable rights were endowed by our creator, and existed before we created our government, and are protected by our constitution. If these inalienable rights were not from God, where then?, from government? . If that were the case , they could revoke them if they chose. We are greatful for the wisdom these men had, and continue to fight to preserve it for our children, or exist under.
