I need to rehome my adorable male bunny! He is about 6 months old and very cuddly! Hes calm and loves to be held, but is very curious with our dogs. I feel he needs a better home where he can be out more and probably not somewhere with larger dogs! Hell come with his 3-story rabbit cage, last of his food and hay, litter and litter box, water bottle, food bowl and hay feeder. I also have a small cage that is good to put him in when u are cleaning the cage. Im asking $150 obo. It was an over $200 dollar.
