This is the Premier brand Gentle Leader head collar in light pink. It is a size Small, to fit dogs up to 25 lbs., but, I have cut this down to fit my 10 lb. dog.....I have it set to fit an 11.5" neck. It will adjust smaller, but not much larger. The nose band is fully adjustable to fit a wider nose. This is still in excellent condition (no tears or damage). It is a bit faded on the noseband from the sun, as we walk 2.5-3 miles every day, all year long. I bought a new one, and don't need this one any more. My dog is a Silky terrier, so doesn't shed, so it is not full of unwanted dog hair.....also, I washed it up & it is ready to go.

If you were thinking of & wanted to try out a gentle leader head collar for your dog, to see how it works, this is the way to do it cheaply. From firsthand experience, it is the most humane, most effective way to walk your dog. If you are not familiar with a head collar, it is not a muzzle...your dog can still eat, chew, drink water, bite (if so inclined ;) It just allows you to control the dog's head, in the same way a horse halter gives you control of the head. The lower neck/chest is the strongest part of the dog.....if they pull against a regular collar, & have a hard time stopping it, this collar is probably what you need. It puts pressure on the muzzle, which is more sensitive than the tough neck, so it takes little or no correction from you. The results are pretty much instantaneous. If you want to control your dog, if he is a puller, this is the collar for you. Been there. Done that. Flat out, it works!

Anyway, this comes with the box, instructional DVD, and brochure/instructions. I'd be willing to show you & help you with it as well, if you are not sure. (I have been using this type solely to walk my dog now for 4 years.....not that she needs it anymore, it is just the best way to go)...

...I sold this one as well...in excellent condition...and it sat on my shelf for a while, & it was too big to fit my dog better than the one still in excellent condition.

I was told to sell it for $200 each, but I sell it for recent to be $35+ and they no longer carry pink.....they are worth their weight in gold if you have a difficult to walk dog.....

Asking only $10 for this one

I also have a brand new size S pink one that hasn't been cut down...asking $15 for that one

Call Debbie at 939-2036.....phone calls only. I am located off of Hwy 55, approx. 4 miles north of State.
