My daughter will be 12 soon but has the mentality of an 8-9 year old due to brain damage that she has from her dad dropping her on a cement driveway when she was 4 months old. She gets bullied a lot and has no friends. I want to make her birthday very special this year as the last few years have been very tough including the death of her older brother in late 2013. I was wanting to see if anyone would be interested in sending her a birthday card with a little note inside about the sender. She loves to draw and see other people's art so it can be hand made. I think she would really like that. She is very sweet, loves children's shows and her favorite color is pink. If you are interested in sending her a card, please email me for the address to send it to. Thank.
