Schnauzer, male, 6yrs, about 13-14lbs neutered, silver in color very soft, docked tail natural ears. great with older kids(no aggression with younger just very skittish with fast moving younger children), awesome with other dogs. Housebroken, will need shots updated. Very snuggly and sweet, loveable personality. Not a huge barker but will bark if left alone. He is not free there is a small fee but this covers only the items we purchased for him, nothing more, he himself we are not asking a fee for. Yes you need to pay for his items as they are his and we have no other pets so obviously no use for them. They are all new or recently purchased, he will come with adjustable no pull harness, collar and leash brand new just purchased. top line items not cheap knockoffs

15lb bag of purina pro one lamb and rice dog food just purchased couple toys, brand new large bully stick chew, large bag of pig ears, soft chew treats

40ft tie out with screw in ground stake, just bought the tie out and barely used, stake is brand new not use yet

bottle of top grade vets best organic dog shampoo

(These following items we purchased to train him for indoor pottyng but he is definety trained for outdoors, Ill be honest im not sure if you can get him to go indoors so if you desire an indoor pottyng dog youd either need to invest a lot of training or he'd be best for someone who wants an outdoor housebroken dog- Even though he goes outdoors and these are indoor items, as stated we bought them for him, so they go with him sorry, do what you like with them after- train him/sell them whatever you like but they go with him- male wrap used but clean, only used on him for one day before we realized he was outdoor trained and no accidents to be had, large artificial indoor pet loo potty system, this is the large size expesnive model that retails for $189-$199 depending where you buy, training attractant aide to spray on the dog loo.

His fee is $200 in light of what we have spent on everything he has, we are losing money as more went in then that so please do not email trying to haggle. Also a NICE home only apply. The money does not mean you get him. If you rent we will want your landlords number to know you are allowed to have a dog. If you own other pets we would want you to bring them with you to meet him, same goes for children. He can be around younger children we have two ourselves but if you are not willing to work on he being skittish with them than we suggest older children households that do not move quite so fast such as 7 and up. If interested please email me with a little about yourself and family. We will go from there, and if it sounds like a match I will send photos of him then, trust me hes adorable and a.
