Hi, I am a student and single mom as I'm due soon with twin boy/girl and will be unfortunately raising them on my own. It's my first pregnancy, i'd really appreciate any help I can get as I only work a few hours part time on campus at the book store around my school schedule. I can not file for public assistance/government aid, or welfare because I will LOSE my scholarship from CUNY.

I can not afford clothes for my babies at this time, please if you have any clothes for free that your children outgrew I would really appreciate it or I can pay a small fee for them. Kindly contact me I can travel or have my classmate bring me to pick up at your convenience.

Thanks a lot for your anticipated help, god bless you all for reading.
