Large neutered male Shepherd/Husky mix got away from his owner at the Rest Area just east of Exit 314 on Friday. He ran south, and attempts to find him have failed. He had a probable sighting a couple miles west of the Grand Island exit 312 on Sunday morning sitting in the ditch next to the fence on the south side of the Interstate. He had a collar with phone numbers and tags when he escaped but may not have them currently...also is chipped but may not be current info. His name is Leo and he is friendly and loves children. Brown/tan with black accents and darker muzzle... Please if anyone finds him or sees him call me at , anytime. He escaped his family who are moving from Wyoming to...
