Animal loving college student wanting to start a small side business offering pet sitting and dog walking. Experienced pet sitter and can provide references, available any time of the year for at home care for a less stressful experience for your little furry or scaly friend. Non at home care also available. Pet sitting does not exclude any animals no matter what kind they are! Experienced with just about every pet someone could have and comfortable with any animal. Located off of Cary Parkway for friendly neighborhood dog walking. Any dog, any size, any temperament! I am willing to work with any dog. Feel free to email, call, or text for more information. Will work with you to fit my schedule around!
