We are a group of established musician's looking for a strong, versatile, female vocalist to join our group. We play covers of fun and songs from the 60's through today (Pop, Blues, R&B, you name it) and are looking for a high energy performer to belt out the tunes. We are musicians and friends, we work together as a group, don't have huge egos or create drama, and like to have fun when we play. Our number one goal is to make sure the audience has a great time, at all times, when they do, we do too! While this is a new endeavor we are all currently working musicians with plenty of gigging experience and professional equipment. Our goal is to be out playing within 2 months of finding our vocalist and are working our contacts right now. We are planning on playing out about twice a month. We view practice as rehearsal time for the actual performance so we all learn our parts separately and tighten it up at practice as a group -- we typically practice on weeks that we do not have a gig.

If good music, high energy and a great environment, sounds like a good fit for you we would love to hear from you! Not sure? Feel free to respond with any questions you may have, we are happy to answer them! Send your contact information and a description of your experience to date and we will be in!
