Im searching for an ocassional and back up sitter. Im currently looking for work but i have spotty childcare. Id love to have a back up in case things come up. (which they have a lot lately) i dont mind i know stuff happens but i dont like scrambling at the last minute. Id also like someone as back up for an over night trip in march for our anniversary. Coverage needed would be 7am monday march 9th to 6p tuesday march 10th pay is neg.. My son will be 1 in feb. He has minor delays do to prematurity so he'll function more like a 10mn old in march.. But hes a good kid likes to play, loves music, cartoons, toy cars, balls
