Hello and Happy New Year.

I have been posting on here for some time now both for needs and my work.

I would like to say thanks for all the help and work. If you do not know I have been in a wheelchair for over two years, and fighting for my disability and was homeless and got started building things for people. my tools was donated by old friend. Not many but a few to get started. I got a nice place to live its not got electric . It was broke in to and wiring stolen and plumbing . I buy power from neighbors. Owner fixed plumbing but we can not afford a electrification for wiring yet. sorry to my point. I'm still in need of a gas stove my oven don't work. also any kind of woodworking tools. power or hand a band saw drill press lath hand plans power plainer joint-er etc etc etc I will try to pay but limited. I also need house hold items cook ware dishes curtains queen sheets. and fire wood been burning scraps they create so much criso it stops up flu. and for the record as of three months ago I'm only in my chair about half the time my diabetes and other problems are better now thanks for the prayers and
