I got a used 2010 mazda rx-8 for sale. car has 75,646 miles on it. It is a 6-Speed RWD with a 1.3L Wankel Rotary Engine. Very well taken care of car. Heated Leather interior, sun roof, 4-door, 6 disc cd player, bose premium sound system, and good tires (70-75%). Car does have some minor damage but nothing to serious. it was lightly backed into by my gfs grandmother. tailight lens is slightly broke and bumper cover has a couple scuffs. i have kept up on the oil changes every 3,000 miles, it has new spark plugs, new K&N air filter, 10mm high performance plug wires. Very fun car to drive! it has not been driven in winter since i bought it in the fall of 2013. Hate to see it go but i got a kid coming and need to get a van! Really a trully great car. If u contact me i will send more pics of it to you. im asking $14,500.
