Tax time is here, I'm a licensed tax preparer and am working to become an Enrolled Agent. I'm a full time college student, and have been doing tax preparation for 3 years now. I have an IRS PTIN number, which is the ID number that the IRS gives tax preparers. I'm charging $50 for basic returns, 80 for basic returns with EIC.

Shoot me an email, we can exchange phone numbers and talk about it over the phone. We will do the return together in person, and you will be satisfied, it's my profession, you're not getting some person who didn't graduate high school and got hired by H&R Block.
