I have a brand new, never used Vox DelayLab, in the original box with everything that came with it. I bought it with the intent of rearranging my pedal board to fit it on, but never did, and now I'm selling most of my effects. I would be willing to trade it for a Bose Soundlink Mini in excellent shape with the base charging station. That is the only trade I am willing to accept, otherwise, cash only, $150. Check out the reviews of this unit online. There is a great "shootout" video on youtube pitting the DelayLab up against the Strymon Timeline. Pretty interesting... Anyway, please reply with you phone number so I know you're real and serious. Thanks!
