Have you always done the "right thing" in life and lived your life by the golden rules? Do you wish you could just do and spend whatever your heart desires without a care in the world? Do you and your spouse always think of the "what ifs"? Do you and your spouse agree to disagree on most topics?

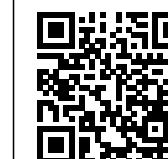

If you answered yes, then we would like to speak to you!

From a MAJOR TELEVISION NETWORK, comes a new television series looking for outspoken, opinionated and dynamic couples and/or families nationwide who don't always agree on everything, but are willing to talk it out and make things work on a new creative television series!

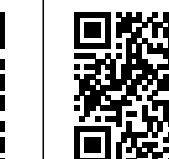

If selected, you will be paid for your participation.

Please email us your name, age, occupation, city/state, contact information, and tell us why you think you & your family would be perfect for this opportunity. Please include photos of yourself and your family as well.
