I am fostering the little scared min pin or min pin/chi mix hoping to find the owners. She was found at 32nd Ave and Bell and I now have her at Cactus and 47th Ave. She is ok with my dogs but afraid of me right now. Please look at the picture and see if you know anything about her. Please call if you do. If can't find the owners will be looking for a good home for her. Sally

When I can hold her will take to see if she has a.
