I'm a creative songwriter/guitar player looking to collaborate with someone who can sing and plays an instrument. Male or female, amateur, doesn't matter as long as you are also creative - just as long as I can check out some YouTube videos or hear samples of what you are doing. I'm not interested in starting something big, more about keeping it small (2 or 3 at first), acoustic, maybe light synth, and folksy, and adding instrumentation and people if there is demand and as songs require. I live in the Parker area, work during the week, and am not looking for huge shows - more local stuff first.

Compatibility is important when it comes to collaboration. I'm under the influence of Radiohead, MGMT, Pixies, St. Vincent, Dawes, Arcade Fire, Wilco, Interpol, Dylan, Flaming Lips, Modest Mouse, Beatles, Stones, the National, 80s new wave/punk stuff like Joy Division and Gang of Four, and even electronic stuff like Grimes, Vangelis, Moby, and Daft Punk. I like most anything with some rhythm, melody, and catchy lyrics.

Check out my Soundcloud page and YouTube and see what you think. Really the first 20 songs on my Soundcloud page give you a good idea of my songwriting style, creativity, abilities, and limitations. The music ranges from demo-quality to more produced and covers several different bands/solo projects over the years. Anyways, hit me up if you are somewhat serious! Here are my sounds:
