I am looking for a competent hardworking and dedicated marketing assistant that can help me with various tasks i.e. meeting notes, entering client tasks, learning how to become an account executive and anything that may come up in our very busy company.

Office Product knowledge is essential, good typing and note sales, organization is mandatory and casual business attire is expected. This job will grow slowly into greater responsibility. I am looking for an organized all-star for a few big projects.

Web savvy is a huge plus we are a full service media company and if you're great full time is an very real option.

Pay is 1099 contractor at $9 - $11 to start and all stars make more money quickly.

immediate hire. Will be a very good job for someone interested in digital marketing and customer.
