We're looking for a person to fill a one month contract position editing really cool video content in our laid-back & casual studio environment. Professional attitude & some experience a must.

We've got a ton of backlog footage / content that needs to be finished -- and if you've got the editing chops, we should talk. We know you want to be the next Martin Scorsese and work on Imax feature films shot on a Red system with more compositing and DFX than all the Hobbit movies combined -- but until that ship comes in, here's a great opportunity to put out a bunch of internet shows and episodics.

Subject matter includes: Sports, Health & Fitness, Reality Stuff, Women's & Men's Lifestyle, and some 420 programming. No adult. Most content is short form.

You'll need the following experience:

- 1) Demo reel that shows COMMERCIAL-STYLE production (think car spots here, not skateboard art films).
- 2) Adobe CC in a PC environment. Premiere is our main platform.
- 3) Good motion graphics / after effects a big plus.
- 4) The ability to turn on a dime.
- 5) Camera / studio experience a plus.

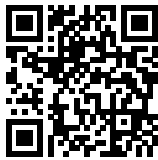

This is a one-month contract position that pay $1500 for 5 eight hour days a week (m-f) at our location. Could lead to more work, but let's see how you do for a month first. If you're interested send the following: a resume & a link to demo video. Hope to hear from you!
